SUMMARY

I am an American artist who graduated with a BFA in ceramics from North Dakota State University in 2018. My work explores the formal structure of plants and flowers and reflects upon the balance of nature. I have displayed my work both locally and nationally and have participated in various national Juried and invitational exhibitions. I work as a studio assistant to Michael Strand and have helped to realize and launch community based projects throughout the country. I also work as an instructor and studio technician for the Center for Creativity at the Plains Art Museum.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts

2014-2018 | North Dakota State University, Fargo, ND

EXPERIENCE

Teaching artist | Introduction to ceramics

2018- Present | Plains Art Museum, Fargo, ND

Classes included an introduction to a variety of methods of hand building, including pinch forming, slab building and coil building, as well as an introduction to throwing on the wheel, and an introduction to a variety of methods of decorating using slips, engobes, stains, and glazes. Students are introduced to both historical and contemporary ceramicists, sculptors, and potters and are provided with resources to aid in individual research.

Research Assistant

2018 – Present | North Dakota State University, Fargo, ND

As a research assistant to Michael Strand and I have helped to realize and launch community based projects throughout the country. My duties have included making, documenting, and installing work; as well as participating in events and working in collaboration with both Michael and community members.

Studio Technician | Ceramics

2016 – Present | Plains Art Museum, Fargo, ND

Duties include processing and reclaiming clay, formulating and mixing glazes, firing and maintaining kilns, maintaining studio equipment, and assisting studio manager and studio members as needed.

Student worker | Ceramics

2014 – 2015 | Plains Art Museum, Fargo, ND

Duties included processing clays and slips from local materials.
